NATURAL GAS TURNED INTO MANS YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

Residents of the South end of Paris from Fifteenth street to the city limits whose homes are properly equipped are now enjoying the comforts of natural gas. The gas was turned into the mains in that section of the city yesterday afternoon.

Mr. J. H. Satterwhite, of the Central Kentucky Natural Gas Co., has been in the city for several days, and yesterday completed the installation of the company's meter at the junction of the pipe line and the city main. Sunday afternoon two sections of the line were blown out preparatory to turning the gas into the mains. Workmen yesterday completed the installation of the reducing service on Pleasant street, near the corner of Eighth. Superintendent C. L. Steenberg, of the Paris Gas & Electric Co., has a full force at work in an effort to have everything in readiness with a view of having gas turned into the mains throughout the city by Wednesday night. This morning it is expected that the gas will be turned into the section of main from Fifteenth street to the corner of Twelfth and Main, and the afternoon from Twelfth to the reducing service on Pleasant street.

From this point gas will be distributed to the business section, and the East end of the city and through the high pressure mains which have been installed.

As soon as natural gas is turned into the pipes the gas plant in East Paris, which is used for the manufacture of artificial gas, will either be dismantled or locked up to be used in emergencies.

PARIS MUSIC FESTIVAL TO BE A GREAT EVENT

The coming of Myron W. Whitney as the principal soloist will be an epoch in the musical history of Paris. He is acknowledged to be the finest concert basso in America. Our citizens are showing their appreciation of Mr. Morehead's endeavor to give to the public the music at a nominal cost by subscribing liberally to the guarantee fund. The large orchestra will be a feature.

DEMOCRATS LEAD IN FIRST DAY'S REGISTRATION.

The special registration which began yesterday, and which will continue through today and tomorrow, resulted in the Democrats assuming a good lead over the Republicans.

It is expected the three days' registration will bring the Democratic majority close to six hundred in the city. The result yesterday was as follows: Democrats, 32; Republicans, 1; Independent, 1. As yet there is a large number of Democrats who failed to register on the regular day, and who can do so during the days set for the supplemental registration.

Let every Democrat who was prevented from registering for the reason of illness in his family or absence from the city, go to the office of County Clerk Pearce Paton and secure a certificate. It will be necessary before he will be entitled to vote in the regular election next Tuesday.

LEXINGTON CONCERN TO FURNISH ELECTRICITY TO PARIS CO.

The report that has been circulated here that the Paris Gas & Electric Company would soon be absorbed by the Lexington Utilities Co., is without foundation, according to information given out by the officials of the local company and no change in the ownership of the plant will take place as rumored.

The rumor in all probability gained circulation when a contract was made with the Lexington Utilities Co. to furnish current to the Paris Gas & Electric Co., after the latter had secured a franchise by purchase from the Bourbon Fiscal Court to string wires and erect poles on the Lexington pike.

The Paris plant has been running to its capacity for some months, and as a result a contract was made with the Lexington Utilities Co., which has ownership of the plant will take place Co. to supply the Paris company with such current as it needed above the capacity of its local plant.

The character of the current furnished by the Lexington Utilities Co., and that generated at the local plant are identical, and the Paris company will take what it needs from the Lexington company's wires at Kenney. This step was taken by the Paris company as being less expensive, both in the long run and as a matter of immediate investment, than to install additional generators of electricity in its local plant.

While the contract was made over a month ago for the purchase of current it does not specify so far as is known that the Lexington company shall undertake to furnish all the current needed in Paris, and it is learned that the Paris company will keep a close comparative record of its costs and that should it be found less expensive to buy current than to manufacture it the Lexington company may supply a increasing proportion of current up to a point where the Paris plant finds manufacture profitable.

COMPARE OUR PRICES.

You do not have to go to Lexington for Wilson natural gas heaters and Clark Jewel Gas Ranges. We have both. Compare our prices.

D. D. D. Opens New Era in Cure of Skin Disease

Professor Budlong's case of eczema was known to almost every hospital and physician of reputation throughout the state of Connecticut. His letter is another interesting demonstration of what is being accomplished by the famous specific D. D. D. Prescription. "It may be of interest to you to know that your life-giving preparation, D. D. D. Prescription has been of incalculable value to me. I was covered with eczema from head to foot when I began using your remedies. I could get no relief, although I tried a thousand means. I applied but two bottles of the Prescription; a cure was effected in a very short time, in less than one month."—Prof. C. J. Budlong, South Lyme, Conn. Ask any druggist today for D. D. D. Prescription. He'll tell you it allays the itch instantly—and soon there are signs of cure. We have handled the remedy for years and regard it as the specific for skin troubles of all kinds. Come in or ask us about D. D. D. Prescription, also about D. D. D. soap especially for tender skins. We offer the first full size bottle on the guarantee that unless it stops the itch at once, it costs you not a cent.

TO CHANGE TAX SYSTEM.

Commission About Completed Draft For Next Assembly.

Members of the State Tax Commission are considering a completed draft of a bill which would revolutionize the system of assessing and collecting taxes in Kentucky. Prof. Carl Plehn, of the University of California, prepared a draft, after which President W. O. Davis, of the commission, and Secretary Elwood Hamilton, prepared some amendments to it, and copies of the original draft and the amendments were sent to each member of the commission, who will meet soon and decide upon a final draft of the bill as it will go to the General Assembly.

A Central Tax Commission, composed of three members, appointed by the Governor, one of the members to belong to a minority party, will have charge of the entire work of assessing property of all kinds, including railroads and other corporations. Under this commission will be deputies, appointed under the civil service rules. The State will be divided into thirty-five districts, conforming to the judicial districts. The Tax Commission and the deputies will work the year around, and actual inspection of each piece of property assessed will be made.

The bill would abolish the State Board of Equalization, the State Board of Valuation and Assessment, County Board of Supervisors and County and City Assessors. It is estimated that it will make an initial saving in the annual cost to the State alone of assessing property of $50,000.

The County Assessors are elected this year for four years, it is probable that some plan will be incorporated in the bill providing for their employment, so that they will not lose out just as soon as they take office.

WASTE FROM SCHOOL DESKS MADE INTO CHEAP BRUSHES.

Waste wood in the manufacture of school desks is now being used for the backs of cheap brushes, according to the statement of the forest service.

A large manufacturer of school desks in Michigan had a considerable amount of waste material in sizes which were too short to enter into the manufacture of the smallest desks and could not be utilized further with his machinery or in his line of work. This material was all hark maple in pieces an inch thick, a foot or so long, and about three inches wide. For a long time it had been consigned to the waste pile and sold as fire-wood. This waste amounted to from one thousand to fifteen hundred board feet each day. A nearby manufacturer was using practically this quantity of maple, which he was sawing up into small pieces for making the backs of cheap brushes.

Members of the forest service, investigating methods of eliminating factory waste, conceived the idea that the blocks used by the brush factory could be readily secured from the waste of the school desk manufacturer, and on this basis got the two together. Arrangements were made so that the brush manufacturer now places orders with the other firm for its raw material and what was formerly waste is now a source of profit.

IS KENTUCKY IN NEED OF THE TAX REFORM?

What Happened in "THE COW COUNTIES" in California and Why "THE DOG TAX COUNTIES" in Kentucky
Should Emulate Their Example

Until a few years ago the State of California was suffering under the same system of taxation which prevails in Kentucky although many efforts had been made to change it. The average citizen is opposed to innovations as a general proposition and while the state suffered and the burden of taxation fell heavily on the small property owner, as it does in Kentucky, it was hard to arouse the people and capitalistic classes managed to keep the old law in effect and went on hiding their personal property and escaping taxation, as they do in Kentucky.

"Why is this man working so hard?"
"To get more land to pay MORE taxes."

A simple careless expression in a San Francisco newspaper caused a revolution of feeling and brought about the change which all Californians are now proud of.

The newspaper referred to printed an article to the effect that the same old Constitutional Amendment would be voted on at the November election and added facetiously that "the Cow Counties" would probably vote for it, and treated it as a joke.

The newspaper evidently underestimated the power of "the Cow Counties" as this little attempt at witicism made "the Cow Counties" sit up and take notice.

The people in "the Cow Counties" commenced to ask themselves: Why is it that farm lands and town property pay the bulk of taxes? Why are the owners of stocks, bonds, notes and other personal property able to get off scott free?

Have we a uniform system of taxation in practice as well as in name? And such like questions.

Well, the result was "the Cow Counties" in California determined to throw off the yoke and the amendment was overwhelmingly carried.

"Why is this man working so hard?"
"To hide his property and pay NO taxes."

The same conditions exist in Kentucky to-day and the same opportunity for a change presents itself and it is time for "the Cow Counties" in Kentucky to show their power and force a fair division of taxation.

By subjecting the millions of dollars of personal property to the payment of taxes, farms and town lots would be relieved as in other states with modern tax laws. In Pennsylvania there is no state tax on farm lands and town lots because the revenue from stocks, bonds and notes is sufficient for the purpose.

The dog tax in Kentucky produced more revenue in 1912 ($127,651) than all the taxes from bonds ($32,425), cash in banks ($64,240), and stocks in corporations ($14,000); total $110,665, while farm lands and town lots and improvements paid $3,177,360.

"The Dog Tax" Counties in Kentucky are in the same fix as "the Cow Counties" were in California and it is high time to quit barking and commence biting. A vote for the tax amendment at the November election will make the other fellow do some howling, if "the Dog Tax" counties will only do their duty and vote for the amendment and enable the legislature to frame laws to make all classes of property pay their legitimate share of taxation.

Extract From Report of State Tax Commission.

"We recommend, that the proposed Constitutional Amendment should be adopted by the voters of the state.

"This Amendment has been carefully drawn, its provisions are clear and plain.

"It follows precedents which have been tried and proved successful in other states.

"It authorizes practical changes, which, in our judgment, if adopted, will increase revenue, remove restrictions now handicapping valuable enterprises, and place Kentucky upon a fair plane with other states which have shown marked progress and prosperity, as a result of sane and sound revenue laws.

"It provides that any and all changes made thereunder in our tax laws up to 1917 must be approved by the people themselves after passage by the legislature and their approval may be made a condition after that time, so that the whole matter rests in the hands of the people.

"We consider the amendment necessary in order to enable the legislature to take the initiative in any effective revision of the revenue laws of the state, which have been condemned by the then State Tax Commissions and criticised annually by the State Equalization Board.

CONVICTED OF MURDER.

Spiritualist Connected With Suicide Pact Gets Death Penalty.

F. G. Farrell, a blind Spiritualist, charged with murder in connection with the suicide pact that resulted in the death of Mrs. T. J. Turner and Mrs. Rosa Carter, at Glenwood, Ark., September 16, was convicted of murder in the first degree a few days ago.

During the trial J. T. Turner, the husband, admitted giving poison to the two women after the three had decided to die together to end their despondency. He also drank poison but recovered.

Turner said Farrell had encouraged the suicide pact through the medium of seances at the Turner home. At these seances, he said, his adopted son, who died in Mexico 7 years ago, would return and appeal to them to join him in the life beyond the grave.

It was the contention of the state that the motive of Farrell in bringing about the suicide pact was to secure possession of Turner's property. This, it was charged, had been deeded to Farrell by Turner.

PRESIDENT WILSON ISSUES "THANKS" PROCLAMATION

President Wilson has designated Thursday, November 27, as Thanksgiving Day, and has issued the following--his first Thanksgiving proclamation.

"The season is at hand in which it has been our long-respected custom as a people to turn, in praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God, for his manifold mercies and blessings to us as a nation. The year that has just passed has been marked in a peculiar degree by manifestation of His gracious and beneficent providence.

"We have not only had peace throughout our own borders and with the nations of the world, but that peace has brightened by constantly multiplying evidences of genuine friendship, of mutual sympathy and understanding, and of the happy operation of many elevating influences of both of ideal and practice.

"The Nation has been prosperous not only, but has proved its capacity to take calm counsel amidst the rapid movement of affairs and deal with its own life in spirit of candor, righteousness and comity.

"We have seen the practical completion of the great work at the Isthmus of Panama which not only illustrates the Nation's abundant resources to accomplish what it will and the distinguished skill and capacity of its public servants, but also promises the beginning of a new age, of new contacts, new neighbors, new sympathies, new bonds, and new achievements of co-operation and peace."

"Righteousness exalteth a nation," and "Peace on earth, good will toward men" furnish the only foundations upon which can be built the lasting achievements of the human spirit. The year has brought us the satisfactions of work well done, and fresh visions of our duty which will make the work of the future better still.

"Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate Thursday, the 27th of November next, as a day of Thanksgiving and prayer, and invite the people throughout the land to cease from their wonted occupations and in their several homes and places of worship, render thanks to Almighty God.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and the Seal of the United States of America, be affixed.

"Done at the City of Washington this 23d day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the one hundred and thirty-eight.

(Signed) "WOODROW WILSON
By the President:
W. J. BRYAN, Secretary of State.

SOLD INTO SLAVERY.

Daughter. Charges Parents With Serious Offense.

Mitchell Stevens, twenty-one-year-old leader of a tribe of gypsies camping at West Overbrook, Pa., and his fourteen-year-old bride, Elizabeth, were released from custody following a hearing, and the young bride's parents, Jno. Mitchell and wife, who live near Indianapolis and who caused the couple's arrest after an eight months' search for them, were arrested instead.

The child wife of the gypsy chief, after proving that she was legally married to him, charged her parents with having sold every one of her sisters into slavery and having attempted to do likewise with her. They were locked up for a hearing.

Mrs. Stevens said Diana, her oldest sister, was sold to a gypsy in Indianapolis for $950. Another sister Maggie, was sold to a gypsy named Lazarus Stanley for $750, and Lucy, another older sister, was sold to Bud Stanley for $1,000, she declared. The former two, she said, were stolen by their parents from their husbands who were made to buy them a second time.

Arrangements had been made to sell her for $1,100, she said, but while negotiations were pending she ran away with Mitchell Stevens and was married to him at Cumberland, Md., by a priest.

HIGH MEAT BILLS.

Butcher Tells Way in Which to Cut Them Down.

In the Woman's Home Companion a retail butcher writes an article entitled, "Reducing the Meat Bill," in which he shows how people who buy the high-priced meat don't get the best meat. He says that some of the cheapest meats are the best. He takes an itemized weekly meat bill of $4.63 and shows, item by item, how the bill can be reduced to $3.21 by using cheaper cuts which he says are better cuts. After dealing with the various kinds of steaks, in which, by the way, he tells about the steak that the butcher eats himself, he goes on as follows about roasts and chops.

"A roast of beef costing a dollar or dollar and a half at the present time is not much; a hungry and healthy family will probably finish it in one meal. You can readily eat it in one meal. You can still enjoy good roast beef, and surely for less money, only buy the right cut. From past observation the writer has found that nine out of ten customers ask for the first cut of the rib roast. Of course, they are the most expensive cuts. The fifth, sixth and shoulder ribs are hardly in demand, and the butcher has a hard time selling them. These end ribs or shoulder ribs of roast beef are not only considerably cheaper to buy but are richer in food value and nourishment. When buying one of the three or four ribs of beef, say, for instance, weighing five pounds, you will find that you have hardly sufficient meat left after it is carefully trimmed and the bone taken out. The difference in price between the first cut on the rib and the last two cuts is at least six cents per pound; and when you ask for a shoulder rib roast, ask the butcher to insert a piece of suet in the center of the roast, or, if he has time, to lard it with thin pieces of fat. Another good piece of meat for roast beef is the top sirloin, which is not so cheap, but is recommended because it has no waste.

"The next important item on the meat bill is chops, either lamb, pork or veal chops. Lamb chops, however, are the kind mostly demanded, and of

Give the Kidneys Help and Many Paris People Will Be Happier.

"Throw Out the Life Line"--Weak kidneys need help. They're often overworked--don't get the poison filtered out of the blood.

Will you help them? Doan's Kidney Pills have brought benefit to thousands of kidney sufferers.

Read this Lexington case: D. M. Farley, merchant, 474 Chair Ave., Lexington, Ky., says: "I had dull dragging pains in my back. The action of my kidneys was irregular, especially at night. Finally I used Doan's Kidney Pills, and before long they put a stop to all those troubles. My kidneys became normal and all the pains and aches left. The endorsement I gave Doan's Kidney Pills in January, 1913, still holds good. I can only repeat that they are a fine kidney medicine."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name--Doan's--and take no other. (adv) course the demand is for loin and rib chops, the most expensive. There is the same solution as with steaks--buy shoulder chops, they cost less and are sweeter. This same principle again applies to pork chops. The shoulder chops are very sweet and tender, and the butcher will sell them for less; but very few people know about them."

NEGROES HELD FOR BURGLARIZING C. N. MARTIN'S STORE.

George Wilson and Henry Hawkins, negroes, were tried before Squire L. J. Fretwell, Saturday, on a charge of burglarizing the general store of Mr. C. N. Martin, near Stony Point, this county and were held to the grand jury in sum of $130 bond in default of which they were committed to jail.

Wilson, who was arrested a few days ago by Patrolman Fred Link, confessed before his trial of being implicated in the robbery and the arrest of Hawkins, who was also arrested by Patrolman Link, on suspicion of being connected with the crime.

The arrest of Hawkins was made Friday at the corner of Main and Eighth streets. He was wearing a new pair of shoes, and the arresting officer, being acquainted with his habits, and knowing him to do little or no work, took a chance on his arrest. When Wilson learned of the arrest of his companion, he made a clean breast of the whole affair, and told of Hawkins being connected with the burglary.

The shoes worn by Hawkins were identified by Mr. Martin and Wilson told where a portion of the goods taken from the store could be found. In company with Mr. Martin Patrolman Link went to the home of John Coates, in Claysville, where they found another pair of shoes concealed in a chimney, also a watch and a knife. At the home of Hawkins they found under the floor a pair of overalls and a large quantity of canned goods which bore the cost marks used by Mr. Martin.

The guests were invited for 1 o'clock, and upon arrival a tempting luncheon was served in the dining room from a table beautiful in all its appointments. The centerpiece was a large bowl of white cosmos surrounded with green. Covers were laid for twelve and after luncheon six-hand euchre was enjoyed at two tables.

Miss Mary Fithian Hutchcraft entertained with a pretty tea, Thursday afternoon, in compliment to Miss Selena Sommerville, of New York, who is the attractive guest of Mrs. Edward Pritchard.

In the dining room where the tea was served, the table was covered with an elegant lace cloth over red, and red dahlias and candles shaded with red were used, with red effect.

Mrs. Amos Turney, and Miss Mary poured tea, which was served with marguerites, sandwiches and hermits. The hostess was also assisted by Miss Josephine Fithian, who met the guests at the door.

Miss Sommerville, who has just returned from a trip abroad, was in college at Wellesley with Mrs. Pritchard and Miss Hutchcraft and the tea were given in honor that their friends might become acquainted with the charming visitor. The hours were from three to five o'clock.

The reception given by the members of the Paris Baptist Church in honor of Dr. and Mrs. O. R. Mangum on last Friday evening in the parlors of the church was largely attended and was a delightful affair socially.

The church was splendidly decorated with cut flowers and potted plants, and during the evening the organist of the church rendered several selections, while a vocal program made the evening most enjoyable. The pastor and officers of every denomination in the city were invited and attended, with their wives; and acquaintanceships were formed that should be lasting.

The pastor, Dr. O. R. Mangum, who has but recently been called by this church has certainly inaugurated himself not only into the good will and high esteem of his own parishioners but the general public as well. Dr. Mangum's sermons are clear cut and concise, showing evidence he is a Biblical student and worthy of the confidence the church and the community accord him.

Those in the receiving line were Dr. Mangum and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. D. S. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clark, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hinton, who very graciously assisted in the entertainment of those present.

GROCERYMAN EXCHANGE SHOTS
WITH 3 NEGRO BURGLARS.

After being surrounded in the store of Frank Skillman on West Second street Saturday morning about three o'clock, three negro burglars made their escape when they discovered the presence of several heavily armed men, and gave battle as they retreated to the negro suburb of Ruckerville. A number of shots were fired, but none took effect.

The negroes were found in the store helping themselves to provisions of every kind which was being loaded into sacks. This is the second time within two weeks the store has been burglarized and when the theft of a large quantity of provisions was noticed several nights ago Mr. Skillman installed an electric burglar alarm which led from the grocery to the Skillman home some distance away.

About three o'clock Saturday morning Mr. Skillman was aroused by the alarm and with Mr. Charles Skillman ventured to the grocery to determine the cause of the alarm. They observed the three negroes in the building and in the hope of cutting off escape one went to the rear door while another, armed with a shotgun stood at the front.

In the meantime, Mrs. Skillman had telephoned to the police from her home, and only through a mistake of the telephone operator the burglars would have been captured. The operator mistook the message and instead of sending the police to the scene of the burglary, told that Frank's store was being burglarized. This attracted the police and a number of citizens to the store of Frank & Co., on Main street, where there was no evidence of anyone having entered the place.

As soon as the negroes in the Skillman grocery found they had been discovered they made an attempt to escape from the building leaving behind them in their flight the goods which they had secured. They were commanded to stop, but instead of doing so one of the number drew a revolver and fired several shots in the direction of Mr. Frank Skillman, who returned the fire with a shot gun. About a dozen shots were exchanged and in the confusion that followed the negroes made their escape.

MRS. LAFFERTY ADDRESSES
LOCAL CHAPTER D. A. R.

Mrs. W. T. Lafferty, of Lexington, was the guest of the Jemima Johnson Chapter, D. A. R., Saturday afternoon, at Elks' Hall. Mrs. Robert Talbott, regent, presided, and after the opening exercises introduced Mrs. Lafferty to the audience and she read a very entertaining and instructive paper relating to the early settlement of Kentucky, introducing the story of Riddles' and Mastin's forts, when the settlers endured many hardships and where a massacre occurred in June, 1780. Mrs. Lafferty is much admired in Paris, and her paper was delightful in every respect.

After Mrs. Lafferty's address Mr. A. L. Boatright, choir director at the Christian church, sang "Then You'll Remember Me," to piano accompaniment by Miss Clara Belle O'Neill, and as an encore he sang "The Swanee River." Both selections were greatly enjoyed by the members of the Chapter and the invited guests. After the program delicious frappe and tea cakes were served. Mrs. Talbott was assisted by her daughters, Mrs. Wade Whitley and Mrs. Virgil Gaitskill.

KESSLER HEADS DISTILLERS.

New Yorker Elected President of Securities Corporation.

At the annual meeting of the Distillers' Securities Corporation held in New York recently, Julius Kessler was elected a director in place of L. L. Gillispie, whose term expired. Mr. Kessler, who is the head of Julius Kessler & Co., the largest distributor of Kentucky whisky in the United States, was elected President of the corporation.

Mr. Kessler has refused to accept any salary until a year or more of his regime has passed, when, if the board desires to vote him compensation, he will consider the matter. He intends to institute a number of economies in both operating and administering costs and expects the management to stand by him until dividends can be resumed.

The corporation has been endeavoring to secure Mr. Kessler's service for about six years as a result of success in liquidating the large stock of unsold whisky which it had on hand in 1907, when the company owed about $15,000,000.

Mr. Kessler was also elected a Director of the Distilling Company of America in place of H. J. M. Cardozo, whose term expired, and also of the Kentucky Distillers and Warehouse Company, a subsidiary concern.

FLED FROM RUSSIA.

Sister-in-Law of Beiliss Say She Was Haunted by Agents.

Mrs. Rachel Reuben, sister-in-law of Mendel Beiliss, chief figure in the "Ritual murder" trial, is residing in Philadelphia, Pa., with her three babies, and declares that she is afraid of her life, believing that agents of the Czar of Russia are continually spying upon her and awaiting their chance to kill her.

"They have been so merciless to us all who are Beiliss's relatives," she said. "They have trumped up every conceivable charge against us to stamp us out. They hounded me until I was forced to take my little ones and steal out of Russia."

"Mendel Beiliss has been in jail for two years, and during that time he has not been allowed to speak to any one. But it is not alone Mendel that has suffered. Every one of his relatives and friends has been subjected to persecution."

"The only evidence they have against him is that some person swore they heard him say that Matzas (unleavened bread) in order to conform with the Jewish ritual, must contain human blood."

CHRONIC DYSPEPSIA.

The following unsolicited testimonial should certainly be sufficient to give hope and courage to persons afflicted with chronic dyspepsia: "I have been a chronic dyspeptic for years, and of all the medicine I have taken, Chamberlain's Tablets have done me more good than anything else," says W. Consumption Takes 350 People Every Day in the United States and the surprising truth is that most cases are preventable with timely, intelligent treatment.

These appalling facts should warn us that after sickness, colds, overwork or any other drains upon strength, Scott's Emulsion should be promptly and regularly used because tubercular germs thrive only in a weakened system.

The tested and proven value of Scott's Emulsion is recognized by the greatest specialists because its medical nourishment assimilates quickly to build healthy tissue; aids in the development of active, life-sustaining blood corpuscles; strengthens the lungs and builds physical force without reaction. Scott's Emulsion is used in tuberculosis camps because of its rare body-building, blood-making properties and because it contains no alcohol or habit-forming drug. Be sure to insist on Scott's.

MUCH NATURAL GAS USED.

Half Trillion Cubic Feet Production
Breaks All Records.

Natural gas production has become one of the leading industries of the United States, and to this country belongs the credit of making natural gas a commercial product. It is the best of fuels—cleaner, more convenient, and more efficient for almost any purpose than any other fuel. Were it possible to transport natural gas as coal, petroleum, or other fuels now in use are transported, it would be the leading fuel of the world and its value would probably exceed that of any other commodity. As it is, enormous quantities are wasted annually, quantities too great even to be estimated, and it is with great difficulty that interest can be aroused in the importance of conserving this valuable fuel and in preventing the exhaustion of the fields. Although steps have been taken in some localities to prevent waste, it still goes on.

The utilization of waste gas from the oil wells in different parts of the United States has been an important means of conserving this fuel, and the increasing number of plants erected are being erected for the extraction of gasoline from this "casting-head gas" was one of the most important features of the natural gas industry in the year 1912.

The year was one of greatest prosperity to the natural gas producer and a record-breaker for output, according to R. Hill, of the United States Geological Survey. The total estimated consumption of natural gas in the United States in 1912 was 562,203,452,000 cubic feet, valued at $84,563,957, an average price of 15.04 cents a thousand cubic feet, compared with 512,993,021,000 cubic feet, valued at $74,621,534 an average price of 14.55 cents, in 1911. The number of domestic consumers supplied with gas in the United States in 1912 was 1,621,557 and the value of gas consumed for domestic purposes amounted to $50,960,833, while the number of industrial consumers was 15,936 and the value of gas consumed for industrial purposes was $33,603,074. On the assumption that 28,000 cubic feet of gas equals in heating power 1 ton of coal, the fuel displaced by gas consumed in 1912 was equivalent to approximately 20,000,000 tons of coal.

In the latter part of 1911 and throughout 1912 the price of petroleum continued to advance. This stimulus of higher prices made drilling more active in every district and resulted in the discovery of some new oil and gas pools, as well as in the extension of older fields. So long as present prices prevail the search for oil and gas will continue, and it is probable that the year 1913 will show still greater results than 1912.

One feature of particular interest in the year 1912 was the completion of the pipe line which is to convey natural gas from Buena Vista Hills of Kern County, Cal., to consumers in the city of Los Angeles and the surrounding towns. This pipe line was built under great difficulties and at tremendous cost. It is expected that on the completion of the compressor which is being built in the Midway field this line will be put into operation.

West Virginia was the greatest producer of natural gas in 1912, the figures being 215,785,027,000 cubic feet valued at $29,064,968. Pennsylvania was the largest consumer of gas, herself producing to the value of $22,823,725, but consuming $26,453,362 worth of gas. West Virginia, on the other hand, consumed only about one-fourth of her output, the balance being piped into other States.

MUST WEAR BADGES.

Hunters in Ohio and Pennsylvania
Required to Do So By Law.

Badges as big as butter plates, bearing the hunting license number of the wearers must be worn by sportsmen when they take the field in Ohio or Pennsylvania, while gunners who cross the Canadian line into Manitoba or Saskatchewan must go clad in immaculate white.

These are some of the peculiar requirements set forth in a synopsis of the game law requirements issued by the Department of Agriculture at Washington.

The Department's analysis of the game laws of the various States and Canada discloses the fact that virtually every State and Province across the border have undertaken to protect both big game and migratory birds.

Even Wyoming, recognized as among the last of big-game hunters' havens, has enacted drastic laws to safeguard game and has shortened the hunting season, besides limiting the size of the "bag" that may be made.

THEATRICAL

At The Columbia.

"The Palace of Flames," an Italian feature film, will be the attraction at The Columbia Theatre this afternoon and evening. This picture, with Ermetta Zaccioni, Italy's foremost actor, and a company of high-class players, are to be seen in the picture, which comprises eighty spectacular scenes. Critics all over the country have passed upon this picture play, and commend it to the public in glowing terms. It is without a parallel in the moving picture world, and has broken the records wherever it has been shown.

—Georgetown High School defeated the Millersburg Military Institute football team yesterday afternoon by the score of 14 to 0.

The usual three reels of excellent feature pictures will be shown.

SPECIAL ATTRACTION AT THE ALAMO.

The management of the Alamo Theatre announce the appearance, for one afternoon and night only, next Thursday, October 30, of Gregg's Imperial Orchestra, of ten pieces. Also, for this date only, Miss Bessie Welsh, premier vocalist. Gregg's Orchestra and Miss Welsh are filling an extended engagement at the Colonial Theatre in Lexington, and have been the recipient of unqualified praise from the people of Lexington and the entire Blue Grass. Miss Welsh is conceded to be the best singer ever heard in Lexington at a moving picture house. Gregg's Orchestra, consisting of ten pieces, is an attraction rarely seen in a ten-cent picture show, and their appearance at the Alamo on Thursday only will undoubtedly crowd that pretty little playhouse to the doors for both afternoon and evening performances. Ladies are especially urged to attend in the afternoon, if possible. No advance in prices. Admission 10 cents.

Half the people know how to do things and the other half know how to do the same things better.

A girl will let her parents select a husband for her, but she will insist upon selecting the goods for the wedding gown herself.

Women imagine that men do not pay close attention to feminine styles. But they do. Most men couldn't tell you what their wives had on the last time they took them out, but they can describe every wrinkle and crease in the dress some other woman was wearing.

Made from Fruit—Can't Harm Tender Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

If your little one's tongue is coated, it is a sure sign that the liver, stomach and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When child is cross, peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally; if breath is bad, stomach sour, system full of cold, throat sore, or if feverish give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the clogged-up, constipated waste, the sour bile and undigested food will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of the counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't be fooled.

Mr. R. L. Chandler, United States storekeeper-gauger, of Cynthiana, was run down by a C. & O. train near the Old 76 Distillery, in Newport, Friday, where he was on duty.

Mr. Chandler had just finished his duties for the day, and was crossing a small bridge near the distillery on his way home. He stepped from one track to another to avoid a train that was approaching from the front, and was struck by another that was coming from behind.

His skull was fractured and he was internally injured.

PRISON TERM

Must Be Served By Daniel Tolman, "King of Loan Sharks."

Daniel Tolman, known to the police of many cities as "King of Loan Sharks," must serve six months in the New York jail for usury.

The Supreme Court so decided a few days ago in denying his appeal from conviction on October 9, of having violated the law in charging a bonus of $4 for a $10 loan for three months.

Although he may appeal to the Court of Appeals, the court decided that pending the outcome of such appeal he must be sent to jail.
